Nick, wearing a black leather jacket like I'm thinking for this video (though for this video it would have white dots for a starscape painted on it):

NICK skateboards alone, loving the freedom.

INT. HOUSE -- DAY

Nick enters. He has a PURPLE scar on the side of his face and wobbles as he walks. He shuts the door.

GIRLFRIEND comes out of the kitchen, relieved to see Nick. They kiss, but while interlocked she notices his scar. Concerned, she pulls away.

Nick grimaces when she touches his scar.

Yells at Girlfriend and storms out.

Falling down stairs as he leaves.

Nick begins furious work on the skateboard ramp.

Girlfriend pulls up in her car, rushes out to Nick.

She begs Nick to stop building the ramp. He tries to ignore her, but she argues more and more, finally trying to pull Nick away from the ramp.

EXT. FIELD / ABANDONED WAREHOUSE -- BLUE HOUR/NIGHT

Nick adjusts ramp and puts on leather jacket that has white dots for sky painted on it. His PURPLE scar bleeds down his face.

He puts the jet-pack on.

Standing a couple hundred feet from ramp, Nick readies himself, standing on skateboard.

Girlfriend returns in car. Pulls out torch and canister. Lights torch on fire. Stomps towards ramp.

Nick sees her, frantically rushes to do his final preparation steps like clamping jet-pack across chest.

Nick yells for Girlfriend to stop as she lights ramp on fire.

Nick turns on jet-pack and zooms towards ramp on skateboard.

He skates through the burning ramp and into the sky as Girlfriend screams "No no no!"

Nick sees the burning ramp from many feet above, but turns towards the sky --
